

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 2026

SAVE
THE
DATE

A warm invitation to the

2nd Multilingual Oncology Patient Congress

Further information:

The Multilingual Oncology Patient Congress once again brings together patients, families, and interested participants to provide trusted and easy-to-understand information about cancer.

 Saturday, June 27, 2026

 11:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

 Charité CrossOver (CCO)

Campus Charité Mitte
Virchowweg 6, 10117 Berlin

Free Entry

Take the opportunity to gain valuable information and speak with other patients and experts.

We look forward to welcoming you!

Prof. Dr. Dominik Modest
Director, Charité
Comprehensive Cancer Center

Prof. Dr. Jalid Sehouli
Director, Department of Gynecology,
Deputy Director, Charité
Comprehensive Cancer Center

What to expect:

- Easy-to-understand lectures and workshops on current topics in cancer care
- Opportunity to get in touch with other patients and experts
- Information booths from self-help groups, cancer counseling centers, social and psycho-oncological counseling services, and local support organizations
- Musical and artistic program

All lectures and program sessions will be simultaneously interpreted into more than 60 languages.

Please bring your smartphone or tablet and your own headphones in order to use the interpretation service.